

Public Policy Design - Foundations

About This Course

You have been tasked with finding a solution to a seemingly intractable policy challenge. There are myriad plausible policy solutions, but none are perfect and all involve some trade-offs. Does this sound familiar?

This course introduces you to a five-step policy design process, with practical toolkits at each step, to help you design policies that can work.

Training Dates Take the course at your own pace

Duration Approximately 4 hours

Learning Mode Fully online and self-paced take the course anytime and anywhere

Certificates Obtain a Certificate of Achievement from CAG

Pre-requisites No pre-requisites required

Learning Objectives

What You Will Learn

By the end of this course, you will be able to:

- Understand what policies are, and how they support the goals and priorities of the government
- Understand the policy design process in five steps, including the principles and practical toolkits at each step of the way

Who This Is For

Early- to mid- career public servants at all levels who are involved in policy design, and want to acquire tools and frameworks for doing so more effectively

Course Outline

Introduction to public policy design

- What is public policy Why is it important?

Key considerations in policy design

- Introducing the four main considerations in policy design
- Establishing the nexus between policy design and policy implementation Stakeholder communication and feedback

The policy design cycle

- Define / Redefine the Challenge
- Examine the Context Identify and evaluate policy options
- Design the execution system Seek approval for policy

Summary

www.ChandlerInstitute.org

Follow us online for our latest news.

/ChandlerINST @ChandlerINST /ChandlerINST