

Public Sector Programme Implementation

About This Course

How can you be sure that a policy designed on paper will work well in practice? Learn about the systems and processes behind programme implementation and the practical insights, skills, and toolkits for successful execution.

 Training Dates Take the course at your own pace	 Duration Approximately 2.5 hours	 Learning Mode Fully online and self-paced - take the course anytime and anywhere	 Certificates Obtain a certificate of achievement from CAG	 Pre-requisites Complete the course: Public Policy Design - Foundations
--	---	---	--	---

Learning Objectives

What You Will Learn

By the end of this course, you will be able to:

- Understand the importance of effective programme implementation
- Analyse the cultural factors and competencies that support effective programme implementation
- Navigate programme implementation with strategies and toolkits for execution tracking and adapting in government

Who This Is For

Early to mid-career public servants who want to acquire skills and strategies to support effective programme implementation

Course Outline

- 01

Introduction

 - What is a programme and why is effective programme implementation important?
- 02

The culture of effective implementation

 - Organisational culture and its importance for programme implementation
 - Embedding and safeguarding organisational culture
- 03

Starting a programme right

 - Identifying the key elements of a programme
 - Common blind spots
 - Setting up the right team
- 04

Execution tracking

 - Principles of an effective tracking system
 - SMARTER goals and the 3Ws
- 05

Taking action and adapting

 - Monitoring and evaluation
 - Effective implementation meetings
 - Strategies for adapting in government
- 06

Case study

www.ChandlerInstitute.org

Follow us online for our latest news.